

MediTelecare™

Exceptional Care Through Telehealth

MediTelecare celebrates longer life spans of people with IDD with increased attention to the benefits of behavioral healthcare that is responsive to their needs and development.

Estimated 54-60%

of adult IDD patients are on one or more psychotropic medications.

National Core Indicators. (2014). Medication Use in Adults with ID/DD Living in Community Homes and State Efforts to Reduce Overuse

With MediTelecare™, your community has access to:

MediTelecare™ services and telehealth technologies are at no cost to the residents or the community!

Only URAC accredited telebehavioral health provider

Interdisciplinary care between psychology and psychiatry services

Scheduled visits individualized for residents to improve access to care

Enhanced visibility to clinical notes through individual community portals

Improved quality of life through proper medication management and non-pharmacological interventions

Scan this code using a mobile device camera to learn more or visit www.meditelcare.com!